Faraday	Art in the Park	Curious Parade	Curious Parade is a theatrical parade of wonderful curiosities that will pedal into town to celebrate Burgess park's re-opening on both the 21st July and 2nd September 2012. Artist collective 'Art in the Park' will make 'has-been' bikes into magical machines with a folk art aesthetic. After the parade they will coral into a Curious Fayre. Southwark locals will be invited to join in the making via an open day, a community group INSET and the pimp my wheels workshops on the parade days. Residents and local community groups will also be invited to join the Curious (cycle) Parade along a 'green route' through Burgess Park. The Fayre will be filmed & documented online. Word will spread from the grassroots up. Bringing local people together to meet and make friends, spread fun, inspire curiosity through excellent art, promote sustainability, health and wellbeing. Olympic Values: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Excellence • Inspiration • Friendship 	Burgess Park cycle route. Faraday	Aylesbury Academic Grassroots (AAG)	Financial Literacy Promotion	AAG plans to deliver four 2-hour sessions of a Financial-Literacy Promotion Programme (FLPP). This will engage students with various cognitive abilities and learning styles; combining educational games, videos, activities and multimedia learning modules, which will entice the students to get involved. AAG has more than 200 students aged 8 to 16 years from diverse backgrounds and this will bring at least 20 of the 13+ students together to learn skills that will enable them to operate on an equal footing. The Real Money Experience will give the students hands-on experience.	Inspire, St Peters' Church Walworth	£1,000
Faraday	Clara Moshia	Fitness Choices Community Health & Fitness Project	The proposed activity is aimed at educating and inspiring the local community about healthy eating and exercise into their lifestyles. The project aims to target women from low income earning households, ethnic minority back ground, young and single mums. I believe these groups are ones that do not have the funds or education on how to incorporate a healthy lifestyle therefore the project will aim to tackle this challenge giving user the courage and determination to make a difference in their lives. The proposal is to offer a series of 12 exercise classes for participants to take part, a nutrition seminar/talk and healthy living take away literature. The benefits include participants being able to build friendships based on shared goals, respect, and determination to kick start their own exercise regime and knowledge to make better and cost effective nutritional choices.	1st Place Children & Parents Centre, Chumleigh Gardens, Burgess Park	£1,000

Faraday	St Peter's Church Walworth	The Queen's Diamond Jubilee Celebrations	St. Peter's Walworth are organising a Party in the Park, in Faraday Gardens. A day-long celebration on Sat 2nd June 2012, to involve as many people from the local community as possible. The Worshipful Mayor of Southwark, Cllr Lorraine Lauder, MBE, has kindly agreed to be patron of the celebrations. The day itself will include fairground rides, competitions, football shoot-out, face painting, food and drink (available at subsidised prices), musical entertainment, bingo, a tea dance, and more! Through this event we hope to encourage Equality, Friendship and Respect. These events have in part been a response to the frequent request for more community celebrations in Walworth, to bring people together that might not otherwise meet each other and strengthen 'community cohesion'. The event also aims to reduce exclusion, by providing a day which is free to attend, with only small charges for 'opt-ins' such as rides, food, drink.	Faraday Gardens Liverpool Grove	£1,000

Faraday	St Peter's Church, Walworth	Walworth's Got Talent 2012	Walworth's Got Talent 2012 will be our second event celebrating the talents of young and old in Walworth, building on last year's success. It INSPIRES and celebrates EXCELLENCE in local residents of SE17 as they plan and practice their performance, and work hard to win their certificates and prizes. It demands DETERMINATION in those taking part to reach high standards to offer to a large but supportive audience and acclaimed judging panel. We believe this takes great COURAGE in young and old. The atmosphere is one of FRIENDSHIP and support in which all are encouraged to RESPECT one another's performances by listening carefully and applauding each performer. Each performer is given constructive expert feedback. Performers must be resident of SE17, but need no affiliation with St Peter's Church.	St Peter's Church, Liverpool Grove	£1,220
Faraday	Sweissy Union	Open Fun Day	A festival of all community members. In relationship to the London 2012 Olympic and Paralympics values, we will have live music, fun rides and bouncing castle for the children to show respect, togetherness and equality to achieve a successful event. We will have African food, traditional clothes from the continent. We hope to show case the inclusiveness of sport and London multiculturalism in display.	Burgess Park	£1,000
