

Fence relocated and entrance area expanded Chapter Road entrance

Land reduced and increase sightlines into the park

New playground, gym area and new entrances

Increase visibility into the park existing mound remodelled to improve sight lines into dog park new dog play features including tree logs

Dog Park fence with new mesh barrier, to prevent small dogs from escaping

existing mound remodelled to improve sight lines into dog park

goal posts: users to be consulted about improvements all existing footpaths resurfaced.

Proposed new entrance at Sturgeon Road. Entrance is widened and the wall is removed to increase natural surveillance in the park, whilst still restricting access to vehicles. (Existing artwork to be relocated in the park) new improved entrance at Chapter Road for pedestrians and maintenance vehicles.

existing mound remodelled to improve sight lines existing trees thinned, to make room for more diverse species.

sitting log boundary

low woodland flora and bulbs animal-themed childrens' play area, with historical references, remodelled landform and new railings existing sycamore trees thinned out and removed to make way for new diverse tree planting and playground.

retain perimeter trees new Braganza Street park entrance grounds maintenance entrance only, with grass grid surface, locked when out of use.

rain garden, with remodelled landform native wildlife shrubs and hedge

Existing fence removed, landform remodelled with new paths, planting, trees, seating and terraces.

central grassed arena retained for informal use shallow mounding

informal terraced gardens path removed

new path

path removed

picnic area

historic orchard

wildlife meadow

native wildlife hedge edible fruit and nut trees, which used to be present in the Surrey Zoological garden, including quince, paper mulberry, and double peach.

Stopford Road entrance

Spectabilis

Pasley Park Concept Masterplan

15/10/2011

