Appendix 5 - How to report a possible breach of planning control

The planning enforcement team has often been requested by residents on how members of the public can report possible breaches of planning control. Below is a brief guide:

i) What is a planning breach?

A planning breach usually occurs when:

- a development that requires planning permission is undertaken without the permission being granted - either because the planning application was refused or was never applied for
- a development that has been given permission subject to conditions breaks one or more of those conditions

A planning breach in itself is not illegal and the council can permit a retrospective application where planning permission has not been sought. In considering any enforcement action, the main issue for the Council as the local planning authority is whether the breach of control would unacceptably affect public amenity.

ii) How to report a possible breach of planning control

Residents can report a possible breach of planning control by:

- Calling, emailing or writing to the Planning Enforcement Team – see the contact details below.

To help officers investigate the possible breach it would help if you could give as much detail as possible, including:

- The location of the site
- The exact nature of the alleged breach
- When the breach started
- How it affects you, or what problems it is causing.

Please also include your contact details. Anonymous complaints can be difficult to fully investigate as it means we are unable to get additional information to assist our inquiries. Such anonymous or obviously malicious complaints or allegations of a breach of planning control will not normally be investigated.
