Subject: London Local Authorities Act 1991 – Sabrina’s Beauty Salon, 151 Rye Lane, London, SE15 4ST

I write to object to the grant of a special treatments licence application submitted by Mrs Genet Berhe under the London Local Authorities Act 1991 for the premises named as Sabrina’s Beauty Salon, 151 Rye Lane, London, SE15 4ST.

The application for a special treatment licence has been made so as to provide manicure, nail extensions and pedicure to members of the public.

My objection is based on the following criteria:

1. The premises have been or are being improperly conducted;

The premises have been found on two occasions to be operating an unlicensed nail bar, section 6 (1) of the London Local Authorities Act 1991 states that:

“No premises shall be used in the borough as an establishment for special treatment except under and in accordance with a special treatment licence granted under this section by the borough council”.

The first occasion was on the 30 October 2019 when a licensing officer visited Sabrina’s Beauty Salon, 151 Rye Lane, London, SE15 4ST and found 10 unlicensed nail operatives working within the premises. The premises had not renewed their licence for 19/20.

On the second occasion a licensing officer visited Sabrina’s Beauty Salon, 151 Rye Lane, London, SE15 4ST on 29 January 2020 and found 3 unlicensed nail operatives working within the premises.

2. They are not satisfied as to the safety of equipment used in the special treatment or as to the manner in which the treatment is to be given

On the 29 January 2020, Trading Standards removed from the premises a number of nail polish. Ray MOORE and colleague Andy MILES went through each of the work stations 1 through to 7, examining product and removing those that did not have details of who had brought the product into the EU as required by the provisions of the Cosmetic Products Enforcement Regulations 2013.

3. The persons concerned or intended to be concerned in the conduct or management of the premises used for special treatment could be reasonably regarded as not fit and proper persons to hold such a licence

The person applying for the licence lives with the previous owner Mr Fissehaye, my concerns is that Mr Fissehaye will still have complete control of the licence. Mr Fissehaye has allowed the premises on numerous occasions to provide unlicensed manicure/pedicure treatments and it my view that this will continue under the new owner. Mr Fissehaye still owns the leasehold for the premises at Sabrina's Beauty Salon, 151 Rye Lane, London, SE15 4ST. The copy of this has been attached to my objection.

I submit that Ms Genet Berhe is not fit and proper person to hold a special treatment licence and recommend that the application for a special treatments licence is refused.

Re: - Sabrina Beauty Salon, 151 Rye Lane, London SE15 4TL

Dear Sir/Madam

Police are in possession of an application from the above for a special treatments licence under the London Local Authorities Act 1991.

On the 30th October 2019 officers from the police Night Time Economy Team, social services and the immigration officers attended as the premises. The premises was trading as a nail bar carrying out special treatments. Eight members of staff working at the venue were arrested for immigration offences all were from China, none had authority to work, and had entered the country illegally.

The premises was sent a warning letter prior to officers attending advising them they should not be trading without a licence as the previous licence had not be renewed and that they should stop until a licence was obtained. No application was received.

The owner attended the premises whilst officers were present and attempted to pay the renewal fee as the licence had expired. He was fully aware that the premises was being used as a special treatments venue and as such was responsible for the staff.

A transfer request made on the 9th January 2020 the current Licence holder is Amanuel Fissehaye who owns a number of properties In the Peckham area and runs a supermarket at 151a Rye lane. The new Licence holder is Genet Berthe who currently resides at also listed on Voters at that address is Sabrina Amanuel. The business is currently trading as Sabrina Nails and was at the time of the visits by police.

It would appear that the transfer has had no material change to who runs the premises, as it appears the previous licence holder was the landlord and the new licence holder was involved previously in the management of the premises.

On the 29th January 2020, Officers again visited the premises along with Trading Standards, UK Border agency officers and Southwark Council Licensing officer. Mr Fissehaye attended the premises whilst the visit was being carried out. Only two staff carrying out treatments were named on the licence, the others were told to stop yet continued carrying out treatments on customers. I have attached a statement from PC O'Mahonet detailing the visit.

We believe that workers have and will be exploited, and the management have failed to comply with a various legislation relating to working practice, employment law and immigration law.

Under Section 8 of the Local Authorities Act 1991, a licence can be refused for a number of reasons specified in the act.

- Part C specifies, "The persons concerned or intended to be concerned in the conduct or management of the premises used for special treatment could be reasonably regarded as not being fit and proper persons to hold such a licence"
- Part E Specifies "The premises have been or are being improperly conducted"

Police Object under Section 8 subsection C & E as the management have shown a disregard to the welfare of workers and the correct procedures for obtaining authorisation to carry out special treatments. They have also conducted improperly at the location by allowing unqualified people to carry out special treatments on members of the public possibly putting them at risk of harm.

Yours Sincerely

Graham White PC288MD
Police Licensing Officer

Inspections, officer powers and your rights

Southwark Council endeavours to adopt a positive and proactive approach towards ensuring compliance. We have regard to the Regulators' Code, Code of Practice on Powers of Entry and relevant codes issued under PACE (Police and Criminal Evidence Act). We believe that close partnership between local business and the Council means:

- better consumer and business protection
- fair and consistent regulation
- clarity about what is required and by when
- action required is proportionate to the risks identified

Officers are always pleased to help if you need advice on any of the areas we regulate including; fair trading, price marking, product safety, tobacco control, weights and measures and age verification. Business advice on these subjects and more can be found via the Council's website along with our enforcement policy and service standards. To access the codes mentioned visit the GOV.UK website.

Officer powers

Authorised officers have a legal right to enter and inspect business premises when they are open for business or at any reasonable time. They may give notice of a visit, or make an appointment if appropriate, but often will not, as to do so may defeat the purpose of the inspection or not be practicable. You should ask to see an officer's official credentials or identification before allowing them to proceed. It is good practice to do so as criminals do sometimes pose as bogus officials.

Powers do vary depending on the legislation but in most cases officers will have powers to;

- enter and inspect all parts of the premises
- observe the operation of the business
- interview staff during the inspection
- seize and retain any food, goods, computers or documents that may be required as evidence
- break open containers or vending machines
- enter by using reasonable force with a warrant
- make test purchases, take samples and photographs
- inspect and test any goods, equipment or installations
- seize items that are liable to forfeiture
- access electronic devices to obtain or access information
- require the production and take copies of recordings (including computer records), documents and video recordings associated with the business

It may be an offence to obstruct, fail to comply with a requirement imposed, or fail to give any assistance or information reasonably required by the officer, or to give false or misleading information (this includes providing access to locked or secure areas). On conviction the offence is punishable by fine and/or imprisonment.

Your rights

- When you are required or advised to do something you have the right on request to a written explanation of what you need to do, by when and why, and whether it is a legal requirement or a recommendation of good practice
- When immediate enforcement action is taken you have the right to a written explanation as to why this action was necessary
- When other enforcement action is taken or proposed you have the right to have your point of view heard and for any alternative action (which must be equally effective) to be discussed
- When enforcement action is taken, you have the right to be told of any appeals mechanisms

Follow up inspections are likely if non-compliances have been identified. If you are concerned about the possible implications for your business ask the inspecting officer what happens next.

Seizure of property

- Where property is seized officers should have regard to PACE Code B
- Before items are seized from occupied premises the officer must show the occupier their credentials if reasonably practicable
- The officer will also take reasonable steps to inform the person from whom items have been seized about the seizure and provide a written record of what has been seized
- Items seized will not be retained for longer than three months, unless the goods are reasonably required to be detained for a longer period for a purpose for which they were seized, in which case they will not be detained for longer than required for that purpose. This does not apply to goods seized for testing, that are liable to forfeiture or that are required as evidence
- Appeal rights may exist under the legislation concerned. These generally involve taking action in the Magistrates Court. You should seek independent legal advice if you wish to appeal against any seizure
- Compensation for loss or damage resulting from a seizure of goods may be payable where there has been no infringement or breach of legislation. In the event of dispute such compensation, or right to it, shall be determined by arbitration

Access to seized property

- The occupier or representative can be allowed supervised access to items seized to examine or photograph them, or should be provided with a photograph or copy where possible, in either case within a reasonable time following any request and at their own expense
- Such requests may not be granted if there are reasonable grounds for believing this would prejudice the investigation of any offence or criminal proceedings; lead to the commission of an offence by providing access to unlawful material; or compromise the personal safety of security staff and/or the security of storage facilities

As a part of the local authority of the London Borough of Southwark, Trading Standards are objecting to the application for a special treatments license at the above premises with respect to the provisions of the London Local Authorities Act 1991. Specifically, objections are made under the following grounds for refusing a license as set out in Section 8 of the said Act:-

8(b) "there is likely to be nuisance being caused by reason of the conduct, management or situation of the premises or the character of the relevant locality or the use to which any premises in the vicinity are put;"

8(c) "the persons concerned or intended to be concerned in the conduct or management of the premises used for special treatment could be reasonably regarded as not being fit and proper persons to hold such a license;"

8(d) "the persons giving the special treatment are not suitably qualified;"

8(e) "the premises have been or are being improperly conducted;"

8(i) "they are not satisfied as to the safety of equipment used in the special treatment or as to the manner in which the treatment is to be given;"

8(j) "they are not satisfied as to the safety of the special treatment to be given;"

These objections have been put in at a late date owing to information that came to hand on Friday 24th January 2020 and on Wednesday 29th January 2020.

More specifically, the facts are as follows:-

1. On 30th October 2019, officers from the UK Border Force, Police and LB Southwark Licensing Team visited the above premises and noted that the people working there did not have the right to work in the UK (Note wrt 8(b); 8(c); 8(d) and 8(e). [REDACTED] [REDACTED] from the Trading Standards Team was working on that day, and briefly visited the store. He saw [REDACTED] at the premises who he knew from other shops in the area. [REDACTED] was dealing with another nail bar at the time and was not able to carry out an inspection of cosmetic products for compliance with the Cosmetic Products Enforcement Regulations 2013 (CPERS) at Sabrina Beauty Salon on that day.
2. On Friday 24th January 2020, [REDACTED] from the Trading Standards Team and [REDACTED] from the Licensing Team visited the premises and noted that there were 3 people working at the nail stations on the premises. [REDACTED] briefly spoke to the staff before going to the off license run by [REDACTED] at the other end of that block. It should be noted that there are only two names on the application for work at the premises, namely "001 [REDACTED]" and "002 [REDACTED]".
3. On Wednesday 29th January 2020 UK Border Force; Police and London Borough of Southwark Licensing and Trading Standards Teams visited the premises again. On this occasion it was noted that there were 8 work stations in the shop...although one had no nail gels behind it.. [REDACTED] made a note of these work stations and drew details of the layout in his "incident report book" while his colleague [REDACTED] [REDACTED] took photographs of the premises showing each work station and the products displayed behind them. These photographs are produced as exhibits AJM/01. On this occasion all the people on the premises had the right to work in the UK. It should be noted that the two people listed on the application mentioned above as "001" and "002" were working at work station 4 and 5. The other three on the premises were [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. The woman working at work station 3, [REDACTED] later that day produced some invoices that she said related to certain nail gels that had been identified as liable for seizure as evidence of non compliance with the CPERs. These covered some but not most of the products displayed there and were dated after the visit on 30th October 2019 (see exhibit AJM/03; AJM/04 and AJM/05). The lady from work station 7, [REDACTED] also produced some invoices later in the day and once again these did not cover most of the products there but were dated after 30th October 2019 (see exhibits AJM/06 and AJM/07). [REDACTED] and colleague [REDACTED] went through each of the work stations 1 through to 7, examining product and removing those that did not appear to comply with the CEPRs in that they did not bear the name and address of a responsible person i.e. who first placed them on the market (which usually means either the manufacturer based in the EU or whoever imported it into the EU). There was also a large quantity of product that had no English labelling at all. It should be noted that these are relevant to sections 8(b) to 8(j) of the Act and reasons for objecting to the application.

The invoices produced cover mainly non nail gels and some for “DND” nail gels and were from well established local nail wholesalers. The DND product does not have details of who brought the product into the EU and these matters are currently under investigation.

The CPERs exist to ensure safety and traceability and hence the need for an identifiable and contactable responsible person in the EU whose duty it is to ensure a safety assessment has been carried out and that no prohibited substances are used as ingredients (such as certain phthalates).

It is our representation that a fit and proper salon operator should be alert to any operatives bringing in their own products to use on clients. Any product with totally foreign labelling on is obviously not suitable and an easy thing for a salon operator to check with respect to whether products are not legal and potentially unsafe. Products which do not bear any English language labelling present an obvious risk to both technicians and clients as any relevant instructions and safety precautions will be unintelligible.

Nail gels and acrylic products contain monomers which are highly sensitising and therefore it is important that warnings about not letting them come into contact with the skin are on the products. Also UV activated products only cure properly with the right frequency UV light. Again with no proper labelling it is questionable how safe the treatment can be as an uncured product is more likely to pose a sensitising risk.

In summary there are potentially serious allergenic sensitivity causing concerns posed by inadequate labelling on products which would be compounded through inappropriate application by unqualified operatives.

Trading Standards are making these objections with respect to this application on the section 8 grounds given above.
