

Annex 1 Strategic Proposal for Children's Centre & New Childcare Place Development

London Borough of Southwark

Please name each children's centre, the number of proposed FTE daycare places for over 3s, current teaching input and when FTE teacher trained in early years can be in post.

Centre	No. of FTE daycare places for over 3yrs*	Current teaching input	Date when able to have 1 teacher per centre
Ann Bernadt Centre	Unknown as yet	Head Teacher and teaching staff	Already in place
Bishops House	43.2	One teacher on-site but not in 'leading' role	Sept. 2004
Charterhouse The Arc	16	nil	Sept. 2005
Dulwich Wood Nursery School	Nil	Head Teacher and teaching staff	Already in place
South Bermondsey Children's Centre	19.4	nil	January 2006
South Camberwell Children's Centre	27	nil	Sept. 2005
Peckham Children's Centre	Nil	nil	March 2005
Bellenden C. Centre	22	nil	January 2006
Grove Nursery School	nil	Head teacher and teaching staff in post	Already in place
Sure Start Aylesbury Plus	Nil	nil	September 2005

East Peckham C.Centre	25	Head teacher at Nell Gwynn and teaching staff in post	Already in place
Kintore Way Nursery School	Nil	Head teacher and teaching staff in post	Already in place
Coin Street	nil	nil	January 2006

* figures show the number of FTE daycare places for 3 and 4 year olds based on Nursery Education Grant headcounts taken during the summer term 2003.

The above depends on two vital factors: 1) that we can recruit suitably qualified teaching staff, either a managers of centres or to work with the Children Centre 'clusters' and 2) if we secure additional growth money from the Education Budget to pay staff salaries, which is by no means certain.