Reasons

This was an application by Done Brothers (cash betting) Ltd t/a Betfred in respect of the premises at 96 Peckham High Street, SE15 5ED for a premises licence under section 150 of the Gambling Act 2005.

The sub-committee considered all of the representations made and heard representations from the representative of Betfred.

Written objections were received from Sergeant Dickinson, the sergeant for the local safer neighbourhood team, who raised concerns of criminal activity and anti-social behaviour and believed that an additional betting shop would encourage this type of behaviour. 12 other representations were received. The sub-committee rejected the representation from Party 8 as it referred only to the betting shop on Rye Lane, when this application related to Peckham High Street.

The ward councillor objected on the basis of the increase of crime and disorder and the protection of children and vulnerable persons from harm. The sub-committee acknowledge these concerns, but concluded that there was no empirical evidence that could be subject to scrutiny was produced.

In their representations made on 22 June 2012, Betfred proposed a number of conditions that they felt would address the concerns raised by the objectors. It was accepted by Betfred that licence condition 3.2 should be amended from 14 days to 31 days. The sub-committee are in agreement that these conditions will alleviate the objectors' fears. The sub-committee believe that a greater dialogue needs to take place by Betfred with the local community and we would add that a representative (from Betfred's area management team) attends each local community council.

The premises licence is granted on these terms.

Appeal rights

That the licensee and any person who made relevant representations in relation to the application may appeal against the decision. Any appeal must be made to the magistrate court for the petty sessions area in which the premises are situated. Any appeal must be commenced by notice of appeal given by the appellant to the designated officer for the magistrates' court within the period of 21 days beginning with the day on which the appellant was notified by the licensing authority of the decision appealed against.

The meeting closed at 12.15pm.
