RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That the licensing sub-committee considers an application made under Section 51 of the Licensing Act 2003 by the Metropolitan Police Service for a review of the premises licence in respect of the premises known as Club Favour, Ground Floor 512-516 Old Kent Road, London SE1 5BA.

2. Notes:

   a) The grounds for the review are stated in paragraphs 12 to 14 of this report. A copy of the full application is provided as Appendix A/A1.

   b) A copy of the council's approved procedure for hearings of the sub-committee in relation to an application made under the Licensing Act 2003, along with a copy of the hearing regulations, has been circulated to all parties to the meeting.

BACKGROUND INFORMATION

The Licensing Act 2003

3. The Licensing Act 2003 received royal assent on 10 July 2003. The Act provides a licensing regime for:

   - The sale of and supply of alcohol
   - The provision of regulated entertainment
   - The provision of late night refreshment.

4. Within Southwark, the licensing responsibility is wholly administered by this council.

5. The Act requires the licensing authority to carry out its functions under the Act with a view to promoting the four stated licensing objectives. These are:

   - The prevention of crime and disorder
   - The promotion of public safety
   - The prevention of nuisance
   - The protection of children from harm.

6. In carrying out its licensing functions, a licensing authority must also have regard to:

   - The Act itself

- The guidance to the act issued under Section 182 of the Act
- Secondary regulations issued under the Act
- The licensing authority's own statement of licensing policy
- The application, including the operating schedule submitted as part of the application
- Relevant representations.

7. The applications process involves the provision of all relevant information required under the Act to the licensing authority with copies provided by the applicant to the relevant responsible bodies. The application must also be advertised at the premises and in the local press. The responsible authorities and other interested parties within the local community may make representations on any part of the application where relevant to the four licensing objectives.

8. The premises licence once issued remains valid for the life of the business unless surrendered or revoked. However, under section 51(1) of the Act it remains open to any responsible authority or interested party to apply to the local licensing authority for a review of the premises licence where there are concerns regarding one or more of the four stated licensing objectives.

The review application and certificate

12. On 8 April 2014, the Metropolitan Police Service applied to the licensing authority for a summary review of the premises licence issued in respect of the premises known Club Favour, 512 – 516 Old Kent Road, London SE1 5BA and a senior member of the police force for the area has certified that in his opinion the premises are associated with serious crime or serious disorder or both. A copy of the application, accompanying certificate from a senior police officer and supporting evidence is attached as Appendix A/A1.

13. On 10 April 2014 the licensing sub-committee considered the application, certificate and licence holder's representation and took the interim step, pending the full review to be heard on 2 May 2014, under section 53B(3)(a) to modify the conditions of the premises licence. A copy of the notice of decision is attached as Appendix C.

14. The grounds for the full review relate to the following licensing objectives and are summarised as follows:

    - Prevention of crime and disorder - the application is concerned with an incident that occurred on 5 April 2014 which amounted to grievous bodily harm at the premises. This is not the first of serious violence associated with the premises; in the past six months there have been a number of serious incidents associated with the premises.

Southwark council statement of licensing policy

    - Section 3 which sets out the purpose and scope of the policy and reinforces the four licensing objectives

    - Section 5 which sets out the council's approach with regard to the imposition of conditions including mandatory conditions to be attached to the licence

- Section 6 details other relevant council and government policies, strategies, responsibilities and guidance, including the relevant articles under the Human Rights Act 1998

- Section 7 provides general guidance on dealing with crime and disorder and deals with licensing hours

- Section 8 provides general guidance on ensuring public safety including safe capacities

- Section 9 provides general guidance on the prevention of nuisance

- Section 10 provides general guidance on the protection of children from harm.

22. The purpose of Southwark's statement of licensing policy is to make clear to applicants what considerations will be taken into account when determining applications and should act as a guide to the sub-committee when considering the applications. However, the sub-committee must always consider each application on its own merits and allow exceptions to the normal policy where these are justified by the circumstances of the application.

Resource implications

23. There is no fee associated with this type of application.

Consultations

24. Consultation has been carried out on this application in accordance with the provisions of the Licensing Act 2003. A public notice was exhibited outside the premises for a period of 10 working days.

Community impact statement

25. Each application is required by law to be considered upon its own individual merits with all relevant matters taken into account.

SUPPLEMENTARY ADVICE FROM OTHER OFFICERS

Director of Legal Services

26. The sub-committee is asked to determine, under Section 52 of the Licensing Act 2003, an application, made under Section 51 of the same act, for a review of the premises licence. At any stage following the grant of a premises licence a responsible authority or any other person may ask the licensing authority to review the licence because of a matter arising at the premises in connection with any of the four licensing objectives.

27. The principles which sub-committee members must apply are set out below.

Principles for making the determination

28. The licensing authority must hold a hearing to consider an application for review of a premises licence where:

- The application is properly made in accordance with Section 51 of the Act
- The applicant has given notice in accordance with Section 51(3) of the Act
- The advertising requirements provided for under Section 51(3) of the Act are satisfied
- The licensing authority has considered the ground(s) of review not to be frivolous, vexatious or repetitious
- The licensing authority has considered the ground(s) of review to be relevant to one or more of the licensing objectives.

29. The four licensing objectives are:

- The prevention of crime and disorder
- The protection of public safety
- The prevention of nuisance
- The protection of children from harm.

30. Each objective must be considered to be of equal importance. The authority must, having regard to the application and any relevant representations, take such of the following steps as it considers appropriate for the promotion of the licensing objectives. The steps are to:

- Modify the conditions of the licence by altering, omitting or adding any condition
- Exclude a licensable activity from the scope of the licence
- Remove the designated premises supervisor
- Suspend the licence for a period not exceeding three months
- Revoke the licence.

31. For the purpose of determining a relevant representation under section 52 of the Act a “relevant representation” means representations which:

- Are relevant to one or more of the licensing objectives
- Are made by the holder of the premises licence, a responsible authority or an other person within the prescribed period
- Have not been withdrawn
- If made by an interested party (who is not also a responsible authority), that they are not, in the opinion of the relevant licensing authority frivolous or vexatious.

32. Modifications of conditions and exclusions of licensable activities may be imposed either permanently or for a temporary period of up to three months.

33. The authority may decide that no action is necessary if it finds that the review does not require it to take any steps appropriate to promote the licensing objectives.

34. In deciding what remedial action if any it should take, the authority must direct its mind to the causes or concerns that the representations identify. The remedial action should generally be directed at these causes and should always be no more than an appropriate and proportionate response.

35. It is of particular importance that any detrimental financial impact that may result from a licensing authority’s decision is appropriate and proportionate to the promotion of the licensing objectives in the circumstances that gave rise to the application for review.

Reasons

36. Where the authority determines an application for review it must notify the determination and reasons why for making it to:

- The holder of the licence
- The applicant
- Any person who made relevant representations
- The chief officer of police for the area (or each police area) in which the premises are situated.

Hearing procedures

37. Subject to the licensing hearing regulations, the licensing committee may determine its own procedures. Key elements of the regulations are that:

- The hearing shall take the form of a discussion led by the authority. Cross examination shall not be permitted unless the authority considered that it is required for it to consider the representations.

- Members of the authority are free to ask any question of any party or other person appearing at the hearing.

- The committee must allow the parties an equal maximum period of time in which to exercise their rights to:

    - Address the authority
    - If given permission by the committee, question any other party.
    - In response to a point which the authority has given notice it will require clarification, give further information in support of their application.

- The committee shall disregard any information given by a party which is not relevant:

    - To the particular application before the committee, and
    - The licensing objectives.

- The hearing shall be in public, although the committee may exclude the public from all or part of a hearing where it considers that the public interest in doing so outweighs the public interest in the hearing, or that part of the hearing, taking place in private.

- In considering any representations or notice made by a party the authority may take into account documentary or other information produced by a party in support of their application, representations or notice (as applicable) either before the hearing or, with the consent of all the other parties, at the hearing.

38. This matter relates to the review of the premises licence under section 51 of the Licensing Act 2003. Regulation 26(1) (a) requires the sub-committee to make its determination at the conclusion of the hearing.

Council's multiple roles and the role of the licensing sub-committee

39. Sub-committee members will note that, in relation to this application, the council has multiple roles. Council officers from various departments have been asked to consider the application from the perspective of the council as authority responsible respectively for environmental health, trading standards, health and safety and as the planning authority.

40. Members should note that the licensing sub-committee is meeting on this occasion solely to perform the role of licensing authority. The sub-committee sits in quasi-judicial capacity, and must act impartially. It must offer a fair and unbiased hearing of the application. In this case, members should disregard the council's broader policy objectives and role as statutory authority in other contexts. Members must direct themselves to making a determination solely based upon the licensing law, guidance and the council's statement of licensing policy.

41. As a quasi-judicial body the licensing sub-committee is required to consider the application on its merits. The sub-committee must take into account only relevant factors, and ignore irrelevant factors. The decision must be based on evidence, that is to say material, which tends logically to show the existence or non-existence of relevant facts, or the likelihood or unlikelihood of the occurrence of some future event, the occurrence of which would be relevant. The licensing sub-committee must give fair consideration to the contentions of all persons entitled to make representations to them.

42. The licensing sub-committee is entitled to consider events outside of the premises if they are relevant, i.e. are properly attributable to the premises being open. The proprietors do not have to be personally responsible for the incidents for the same to be relevant. However, if such events are not properly attributable to the premises being open, then the evidence is not relevant and should be excluded. Guidance is that the licensing authority will primarily focus on the direct impact of the activities taking place at the licensed premises on members of the public, living, working or engaged in normal activity in the area concerned.

43. Members will be aware of the council's code of conduct which requires them to declare personal and prejudicial interests. The code applies to members when considering licensing applications. In addition, as a quasi-judicial body, members are required to avoid both actual bias, and the appearance of bias.

44. The sub-committee can only consider matters within the application that have been raised through representations from interested parties and responsible authorities. Interested parties must live in the vicinity of the premises. This will be decided on a case to case basis.

45. Under the Human Rights Act 1998, the sub committee needs to consider the balance between the rights of the applicant and those making representations to the application when making their decision. The sub-committee has a duty under section 17 Crime and Disorder Act 1998 when making its decision to do all it can to prevent crime and disorder in the borough.

46. Interested parties, responsible authorities and the applicant have the right to appeal the decision of the sub-committee to the magistrates' court within a period of 21 days beginning with the day on which the applicant was notified by the licensing authority of the decision to be appealed against.

Guidance

47. Members are required to have regard to the DCMS guidance in carrying out the functions of licensing authority. However, guidance does not cover every possible situation, so long as the guidance has been properly and carefully understood, members may depart from it if they have reason to do so. Full reasons must be given if this is the case.

Strategic director of finance and corporate services

48. The head of community safety and enforcement has confirmed that the costs of this process are borne by the service.

(Please read guidance note 2)

On Saturday the 5th April 2014 at about 02.30hrs a male was seriously assaulted amounting to Grevious bodily Harm (GBH) Injuries Cris 3009373/14 refers.

This happened in the smoking area within the premises boundery. This area should have been sterile and weapons free, as all customers should have passed through the search procedure as per Condition 290 on the Licence.

A fight started within this area between unknown parties and during the fight the victim believed he had been punched but had sustained a stab wound to the rib and a knife was seen during the altercation on the floor by the victim this subsequently disapeared. The victim then saw blood on his T-shirt, he went to the toilets within the club and cleaned the wound. He then left the club and went home and subseqently made his own way to Croydon hospital.

Police have no recored of being called to investigate the incident until the hospital contacts us at 06.11hrs. When police attended the venue to forensically examine the scene it had already been cleared up possible losing vital forensic evidence in a serious assault. When Police attended the venue a member of staff confirmed that he was aware of the incident. This offence consitutes serious violence and disorder occuring withion the premises and they have failed to call police, preserve the crime scene or take any basic actions that a responsible operator would be expected to do.

This is not the first incident of serious violence associted with the premises. In the last six months the premises has been associated with Three (3) GBH allegations and Five (5) Actual Bodily Harm (ABH) allegations.

Police are seeking a suspension of the licence till a full review hearing due to the serious nature of the allegations and failures in security at the premises and possible breach of the licence.

On Sunday the 1st July 2012 Police attended Club Favour (copy of Statement Attached) and observed people entering the premises with out being searched a serious breach of security. A Section 19 closure notice was issued (copy attached) and later warning letter was issued (copy attached)

In early 2013 Police Licensing arranged for an Officer from the tridents gang command to attend the premises and compltete a Club Industry minimum Operating Standards report on the premises. (Copy Attached) This was issued to the premises in February 2013. It should be noted in that report Section 47 - 50 relates to Crime scene preservation which was not complied with after this incident. Section 90 - 114 relates to searching, security and the smoking area. Which it apears from the report has not been fully implimented and customers in the smoking area could have direct contact with people outside the search area.

On the 17th February 2014 Insp Landers attended the premises and again warned the premises re security problems (report attached) and that if it was not sorted out he would consider closing them under section 161 as he believed it to be that serious.

The police have no confidence in the management or the security and that any further conditions, restrictions or interim steps placed on the premises would not guarantee that another similier or even more serious incident would not occur within the premises as such Police seek an immediate suspension of the Licence.

Notes for guidance

PROTECTIVE MARKING

1. A certificate of the kind mentioned in the form must accompany the application in order for it to be valid under the terms of the Licensing Act 2003. The certificate must explicitly state the senior officer's opinion that the premises in question are associated with serious crime, serious disorder or both.
   Serious crime is defined by reference to section 81 of the Regulation of Investigatory Powers Act 2000. In summary, it means:
   - conduct that amounts to one or more criminal offences for which a person who has attained the age of eighteen and has no previous convictions could reasonably be expected to be sentenced to imprisonment for a term of three years or more; or
   - conduct that amounts to one or more criminal offences and involves the use of violence, results in substantial financial gain or is conduct by a large number of persons in pursuit of a common purpose.

   Serious disorder is not defined in legislation, and so bears its ordinary English meaning.

2. Briefly describe the circumstances giving rise to the opinion that the above premises are associated with serious crime, serious disorder, or both.

I am giving this certificate because I am of the opinion that other procedures under the Licensing Act are inappropriate in this case because:

(Give a brief description of why other procedures such as a standard review process are thought to be inappropriate, e.g. the degree of seriousness of the crime and/or disorder, the past history of compliance in relation to the premises concerned)

On Saturday the 5th April 2014 at about 02.30hrs a male was in the smoking area within the premises boundery when a fight started. During the fight the victim sustained a stab wound to the rib and a knife was seen during the altercation. This consitutes serious violence and disorder. Police were not informed of the incident until the victim attended Croydon Hospital. When police attended the premises the scene had been cleared up yet a staff member was clearly aware what had taken place. This has seriously hindered the investigation. It is also apparent that search procedures have failed allowing weapons into the premises. Police believe that a expidited review is required for a suspension of the licence until a full hearing due to the serious failures in management of the premises.

Subject: Club Flavour

Keith,

Morning...

CAD 706 17FEB.

I had units attend the club in the early hours of Monday Morning regarding numbers.

There were approximately 150 people waiting outside with only 50 places left. I understand from the management there that the capacity is 480?

The problems started when a group decided to form their own queue, ripping down some barriers and fencing in order to get in more speedily.

For your information, there were only 3 door staff on with two more inside - I will leave it to your knowledge as to whether this is sufficient or not.

We did speak with them via a loud haler but to no avail and I did not have the resources (nor inclination) to close it down in any case.

I spoke with the security manager and manager at the venue and warned them to get their staff and systems in order or I would close them down having had to return regarding parking and other problems.

Of note also is the fact that they were supplying tickets with a 2011 date on them and subsequently refusing refunds because they were not the right date!!!

It would appear that the event was oversold.

I have asked for a CRIMINT to be put on and sent to licensing.

Cheers

Police were called to Croydon University Hospital after receiving a phone call from staff at the hospital that a male had arrived at the hospital with stab injuries to his rib area. Attending officer were informed on route that the alleged stabbing occurred somewhere on the Old Kent Road Southwark.

On officers arrival at Croydon University Hospital they were directed by staff to bed 4 where the male was waiting to be seen. The male who is a/ was in a hospital gown above his waist and wearing black jeans and black trainers. He seemed in good sprit and was very receptive to the attending officers, there was also an IC3 female who officers found out was mother, she did not talk to police or even acknowledge that the officers were there.

was asked what had happened he freely explained that he was at 'Club Favour' which is on the Old Kent Road with friends, he was standing by the door to the club where the smoking area is situated just inside the venue. He continued that a small fight had started in front of him and one of the males got the other in a head lock, stated that he then felt what he believed was a elbow to this rib area, the two unknown males continued to struggle for a while, continued that his rib area where he had been struck continued to hurt, he then noticed a knife on the floor where the two males were fighting, then noticed blood on his T-Shirt, he turned to his friend and said that he had just been stabbed by the knife on the floor as he turned to where the knife

PC Mason spoke with Southwark's CID and DS Dave Taylor, the location was updated and a local unit was sent to try and establish a scene and to view CCTV. PC Mason was then directed by Ds Taylor who asked for clothing to be seized a 172 to be completed and signed and a statement to be taken.

PC Mason returned to and ask for his permission to view his medical records for this incident and offered him the 172 form to be signed, he at first seemed to happy to comply with this request then his mother said "no I don't believe that it what its for and told to refuse. Officers tried to reason with and his mother but they refused. was then informed that police wanted to seize his clothing, before answered his mother said "how long for" it was explained that a time could not be given as officers did not want to disappoint if the clothing was not returned in time, the mother then said "well that's not going to happen", with this refused for clothing to be seized. A statement was then requested again the mother answered before and said that he was not going to give a statement she wants nothing to happen. It was explained that police wanted to try and locate the suspect but needed their help to do so, both refused to help with any more investigation, even to the point where would not sign a small pocked book entry in PC Hamidi's pocket book. PC Mason got the impression that was happy to help police until his mother spoke and said that he was not going to help police, he also seemed embarrassed by his mother and how she was acting, however it was not possible to talk to alone.

DS Turner was updated with the latest developments and just asked that it was tried again this was asked again but still all refused by mother and

CCTV was checked by the crew of Z1 Early Turn at Croydon University Hospital to see who arrived with this confirmed that it was just his mother.

A local unit attended the incident location however this was now closed, no sign of any blood and the alleged knife was not there. I believe that another visit will be tried at a later time.

PRIMARY INVESTIGATION DETAILS : 2 Scene
Scene visited at least 5 hours after the alleged incident due to the lateness of the report by the victim and the only reason police were aware of the incident as they were called by hospital staff.. No scene at this time could be found as the club is shut.

PRIMARY INVESTIGATION DETAILS : 3 Forensics
The victim has refused any clothing and has not given permission for police officers to review his medical records for this incident, he even did not allow attending officers to look at the wounds.

PRIMARY INVESTIGATION DETAILS : 4 Victims/Witnesses
There are no witnesses at this stage and now victim is now not helping police with their enquires, because of this no statement taken.

PRIMARY INVESTIGATION DETAILS : 5 Suspects
No suspect details given by victim and there are no witnesses at this time.

Supervision Update

I have read this report which relates to the victim being stabbed and received a superfical wound. He did not report this to police at the time and attended the hospital near to where he resides in Croydon. Officers have attended the venue checked with the club and no one has called police. There is no scene as the venue has been cleaned and no knife was recovered. The victim has refused to provide his clothing for potential forensic examination. He has also refused to assist police and provide a statement. I am aware of this venue and they only have CCTV inside the club covering the dance floor and not in any other part of the club. We have no actual motive, suspects and it would apear from the scant account from the victim that the victim and suspect do not know each other. I am concious of Croydon officers update regarding the victim's mother being uncooperative and unhelpful and that the victim appeared he did wish to speak to police but his mother kept interupting.

Therefore before I close this

TRIDENT GANG CRIME COMMAND

Club Industry Minimum Operating Standards (C.I.M.O.S) is designed to improve security for nightclubs and licensed venues.
It is designed to help you reduce risks of weapons, drugs and violence occurring in your premises, and help you maintain a happy hospitable and social place for your customers to meet people and enjoy music and socialize. In order for this to occur it is vital that specific security systems are put in place to help prevent persons with criminal intent from entering the establishment effecting the reputation of the club, and resulting in the venue being forced to close their doors for failing to control serious crime on or directly outside the premises.
This report follows a problem solving approach, involving scanning available data, researching relevant facts and information, analysing the identified intelligence to produce sustainable solutions that are achievable, realistic and cost effective.

Using identified best practice and the author's 12 years experience in this field suggested crime prevention principles have been developed to help reduce gang crime and create environment for all.

While CIMOS recommendations are broad in scope, these standards are flexible and acknowledge the unique and complex needs of each venue. This will include where the venue is placed, what type of customers are expected to attend, the size, layout, accessibility and any promotions or events to be held. It will be for the local police or council's licensing department to decide whether CIMOS standards are needed, based on specific knowledge of their problem venues.

The recommendations are listed in alphabetical order for easy reference. These standards provide a dual purpose, in so much as there is a benefit to police in reducing crime and a benefit to the business in preventing loss. If a venue is closed down due to a violent incident the owners will lose money. Therefore it is to their benefit that this FREE advice is implemented to enable their customers to have a good time in a safe environment.

In appropriate cases, where the facts justify it, police might apply C.I.M.O.S recommendations as a formal condition to be added to a Premises Licence either when a new licence is applied for or varied on Review.

In order to ensure that your club is kept up to date with security and safety you will need to ensure you follow the 5 R.I.P.E.R guide lines:-

1. Reassurance:- Good security reassures your customers and keeps everyone safe, customers must know what is expected of them. They need to be greeted, know where to buy there tickets, where to queue, where to be checked by your club scan, that everyone is searched and that they can see staff and other customers clearly.
2. Intelligence: - Your security officers should give you feed back at the end of each evening of any potential problems and your staff should be de briefed to find out if there are any issues or concerns with customers. Always keep in contact with the police licensing department and make sure that your 696 forms are submitted on time
3. Prevention:- check that your club is kept to the C.I.M.O.S standards and as above keep in touch with your licensing department
4. Enforcement: - Mean what you say and say what you mean otherwise persons wishing to commit crime on your premises will see you as an easy target.
5. Review:- constantly check your premises for security weaknesses, this could be your perimeter security, your CCTV functions, lighting issues, staff issues, make sure that everything is working and maintained.

Make sure you complete your R.I.P.E.R checks every week.

Access Control

1. Anyone, who enters the premises to work, for any reason, must be identifiable and register their entry and exit in the registration book. Managers will be able to monitor staff activity, hours worked, deliveries and maintenance work which will reduce overall cost. It will prevent staff leaving early as they will have to sign out themselves and provide written evidence of any maintenance work or deliveries. Should a query arise the record will provide an effective management tool.

Accident and Report book

2. This need to be kept in your venue any incident must be recorded in this book.

Bar

3. All glass bottles and drinking receptacles should be kept behind the counter at the rear of the bar away from the public reach.
4. All glasses, bottles, jugs, metal and sharp objects must be stored away from the serving counter. All spirit and champagne bottles must be kept behind the counter at all times. Anyone who has purchased champagne after 11pm must be served by bar staff; bottles must not be left out in the public domain.

Bins

5. All public waste bins need to be fitted with see-through bin liners.
6. This will help to reduce the risk of any weapons, sharp objects, drug paraphernalia or stolen property being discarded in them.

CCTV

7. Basic Minimum

8. All CCTV systems must record in real time, monitor and record (CCTV pictures) of all entry and exit points including fire exits, till points, public and service areas, i.e. stairways, toilet doors, VIP areas, lobbies, courtyards, smoking areas, the perimeter of the building and any parking facilities.
9. The CCTV system must be able to record a clear frontal identification head and shoulder image of every person entering, in any light conditions, and store the information for 30 days.
10. The British Security Industry Association (BSIA) is the professional trade association for the security industry in the UK. The BSIA places rigorous requirements on companies wishing to become members. Their web site is: - www.bsia.co.uk. Managers may wish to consider contacting them to obtain the name of a professional CCTV/security company before going ahead and ordering a new system.
11. The CCTV will need to record all searches conducted by the Door Supervisors. (vital)
12. Place the cameras in a vandal resistant unit to prevent them being moved or use vandal resistant dome cameras.
13. Access to the system and recorded images should be controlled to prevent tampering or unauthorised viewing.
14. Further information can be found in the BSI document "Code of Practice and Legal Admissibility of Information Stored Electronically" (BIP008).
15. A Requirements Manual is available for free from the Home Office website http://scienceandresearch.homeoffice.gov.uk/hosdb/publications-2/cctv-publications/17-94_CCTVOperationalRequir2.pdf?version=1
16. Any copies from the hard drive (CDs or DVDs) that are handed to the police should be recorded in a register and include the time and date, name and department of the police officer and their signature. CDs or DVDs handed back from the police should also be recorded in the register with the same details. For more information visit www.hosdb.homeoffice.gov.uk.
17. Once the system is up and running managers will need to:-
18. CHECK that the CCTV system is working at the start of each day (that means looking at every camera).
19. A log will need to be kept of any faults in the CCTV system, stating any action being taken to remedy the problems and when it is expected to be repaired and record the date of the repair.
20. and any problems reported and repaired.
21. Training must be provided to staff to ensure that there is always somebody on the premises who can use the system and, where necessary, provide copies for police.

CCTV Signage

22. In order to comply with the Data Protection Act 1998, CCTV signage must be placed at the entry door and inside the building. This sign will have to specify who to contact, detailing either the individual's name or the club's name, together with a contact telephone number or address.

CCTV Systems

23. The Data Protection Act 1998 requires that CCTV systems are registered for the following reasons:-
24. If any of the CCTV cameras have the facility to pan, tilt or zoom.
25. If any of the cameras are used to check on specific persons, e.g. staff members.
26. If the recorded images are viewed by anyone other than the police.
27. The cost to register is £35 and the contact telephone number for the Data Commissioner's Office is 01625 545745. The internet address is www.ico.gov.uk. If the system is not registered you could be liable for a monetary fine.
28. Having clear CCTV images will help identify people involved in crime, help in reducing theft from staff, monitor customer activity and provide important information for police should a crime occur.

Control Policies

29. Anyone wishing to promote an event or rent out the venue for birthday parties etc. must be thoroughly checked, even if they are known. Accountability and liability belongs to the venue.
30. The minimum that should be requested is:-
31. The person booking the hall shall:-
32. Be a UK resident, in possession of an EU/British Passport or have permission to work in the UK.
33. Produce a current bank statement with their residential address on it and their last quarter utility bill – but not a first bill.
34. Provide contact telephone numbers, including their mobile phone number.
35. Provide information about why they want the venue, i.e. birthday.
36. Provide full details of the DJ, to include their name and address and a copy of their passport details.
37. Provide details of how many people will be attending.
38. Provide details of the times of the event.
39. Identify anything they will be bringing in for the event etc.

40. The person taking the booking has to:-
41. Photocopy the person's picture within their passport, record their passport number and retain both. This material should be produced to police upon reasonable request and should be retained for 28 days after the event has taken place. After this period the material must be destroyed.
42. Ensure that security will be on site to monitor activity and safeguard the premises. The cost could be built into the 'let'.
43. It is vital that there is complete control of the venue during the day as well as in the evening to prevent anyone bringing in any drugs, weapons or anything illegal.
44. The risk assessment form, together with the guest list, must be submitted for every event at least three weeks before allowing the venue to be booked. The risk assessment form is available from your local licensing department. The names of all DJs and performers should be listed on the document. This will then be checked. Please seek police advice if you believe there will be a problem with an event.
45. The venue will need to supply their own door supervisors for this event.
46. If you have an event run by a promoter they must have obtained the BIIAB level 2 for music promoters. In the event that a problem should arise during a promoted event, this should be documented by the licence holder and a debrief form must be provided to the Southwark Police licensing team within 48 hours of the event.

Crime Scene

47. You will need to have a standard operating procedure to deal with and preserve a crime scene until police arrive, following the outbreak of any disorder or serious crime.
48. Such a policy should be formulated in consultation with police licensing department
49. All staff (including your security staff) must receive training on this policy with a record kept of the date and name of persons trained.
50. Records should be made available for inspection by the police or licensing authority

Dispersal

51. At the end of an evening security must:-
52. Supervise their customers and ensure that customers leave quietly and quickly.

53. Where appropriate, ensure that customers are directed to licensed mini cabs.
54. Encourage customers to leave and not congregate outside the venue.

Dress Code

55. Dress codes must be imposed as a requirement of entry. The code should include no hoods, caps, jeans and trainers. All customers wearing sunglasses should remove them on entry in order for the CCTV system to be able to record a full head and shoulder image.
56. Dress codes, drugs and CCTV policies will also need to be placed on a sign that is clearly visible at the outside entrance door.

Fire Exits

57. Fire exit doors are the weakest security point in any venue. These doors are vulnerable to abuse and anyone can open the doors and exit, or help an unauthorised person enter the venue to bring in drugs or a weapon without staff knowledge. Even placing security at the fire exit doors will not be enough as they will not be there during the day.
58. It is vital that fire exit doors have a 24-hour security policy, not just an evening policy.
59. Security staff can be distracted and move away from the door thus providing easy access to the venue.
60. The fire exit doors need to be fitted with a sensor alarm that cuts out the music if opened to alert staff that the doors have been compromised. Fit a clearly visible electronic flashing warning light on internal and external fire exit doors so that staff can see that the doors have been opened. It only takes a matter of seconds for someone to open these doors and gain access into the building to bring in a weapon or drugs.
61. Static security staff must be posted to all fire exits.
62. Recessed external fire exit doors should be fitted with a sensor light that will illuminate the area when someone is standing outside the door. If the light comes on, security patrolling the perimeter of the venue will be alerted to the fact that there is someone loitering in this area and will be able to deal accordingly.

Instant arming

63. At the time of the survey I noticed that there was a baseball bat placed under the bar counter, a crow bar and hammer by the rear door. These items MUST not be left out, they must be put away, they could be used as a weapon against you.

Lighting

64. External lighting
65. Good quality uniform lighting should cover the entire frontage of the property. The emphasis should be on installing low glare/high uniformity lighting levels in line with British Standard 5489-1 of 2003.
66. The lighting should be bright 'white light'. Note: Low-pressure sodium 'orange' lighting is not compatible with quality CCTV systems.
67. The lighting should not obstruct the CCTV and pollute the images.
68. Internal lighting
69. Lighting should be pervasive, directional and not interfere with the CCTV.
70. Creative lighting can provide additional light, i.e. fitting a light under the bar counter, in recessed areas, along corridors and stairways as well as over the dance area. It will create a friendly environment and help to reduce crime.
71. Fitting zoned dimmer lighting in the venue will enable staff to increase lighting to different parts of the venue and control visibility should a serious situation occur. It will also help to diminish a confrontational situation.

Maintenance Equipment

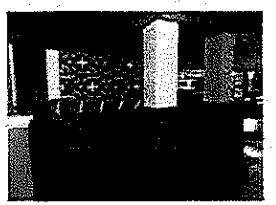

72. All maintenance equipment such as mops, ladders, hammers, cleaning products etc.. must be put away in a secure cupboard to prevent the public using them as a weapon.

Monitored Security System

73. The premises will need to be equipped with a monitored security system with a signal terminating at a recognised Alarm Receiving Centre (ARC). The system should comply with the current version of the EN 50131-1 standard and be eligible for a police response as defined by the Association of Chief Police Officers (ACPO) Policy on Police

Response to Security Systems, Level 1 status. This should incorporate personal attack buttons for the use of staff in identified locations such as behind bar areas.

Mirrors and Pictures

74. Mirrors are a very useful crime prevention tool. The reflection assists security staff to view hard to see areas. Fit mirrors to the support columns to improve visibility in this area.
75. All mirrors must be vandal resistant and made with safety glass.
76. Mirrors and pictures must be secured to the wall to prevent them from being used as a weapon.

Parking

77. Customer's car parks must be monitored by CCTV capable of capturing the registration numbers of all cars entering or exiting the car park.
78. They must have car park attendants.
79. There must be good quality white lighting to illuminate the car park, when it is in use. This will enable car park attendants to see what is occurring.
80. Attendants must be issued with radios.
81. Customers must not be allowed to park outside the venue.

Perimeter Doors

82. Never underestimate the importance of good quality external doors; they are one of the 'keys' for a safe and secure venue. The standard for all external doors needs to be LPS 1175 SR 2, if there is glazing is must be laminated to a minimum 7.5mm thickness and certificated to BS EN 12600 class 3.

Queuing Procedures

83. The majority of the customers queuing to get into a club are perfectly well behaved, however, from time to time, there may be problem and therefore it is important to have a strict queuing procedure.
84. Customers should queue behind a metal barrier and be monitored by security and CCTV. If a customer is wearing a hood, hat or sunglasses they should be asked to remove these items so that the CCTV can record a clear image of them.

85. Customers who have advanced or VIP tickets should queue in a separate area for quick access. Names of VIPs should be given in advance and checked. If their name is not on the VIP list they should be asked to join the general queue.
86. Any problems will need to be dealt with in a consistent way. Management and security will have to decide in advance on how to deal with unacceptable behaviour. The main aim is to avoid inflaming any situation that could result in violence or customers seeking retribution later.
87. When customers reach the entry door they should be guided into separate male and female queues for searching.

Radios

88. Security officers will need to be issued with a radio in order to communicate effectively between management and other security officers.

Seating

89. Padded seats provide a very good place to hide drugs, stolen credit cards and knives, particularly between the base and back of the seat. Security officers must check this style of seating at the start and end of each evening to ensure that nothing has been hidden in the seat, or in, or under the cushions. Safety gloves must be worn whilst doing this.

Searching and Security

90. Security is the frontline 'defence' system in preventing weapons entering the venue. It is important to note that if the searching policy is not up to the highest standard, word will get out that the venue is weak and vulnerable.
91. There should be a minimum of one (1) security officer for every fifty (50) people. (Industry guidance I am aware of is 1-100)
92. The following recommendations should be implemented:-
93. Security officers completing searching procedures, monitoring car parks, smoking areas or patrolling the perimeter of the venue must wear high visibility vests.
94. All male and female customers must be searched with either a hand held metal detector or an arch metal detector. This should then be followed with a body pat down before being allowed entrance into the premises.
95. Pay particular attention to anyone wearing baggy clothing as it is easier to hide weapons or drugs.

107. Your security is the first members of staff that your patrons see. Their manner and professionalism relates the attitude of the club. Their function is to screen your customers before allowing them to enter. If they are seen as unprofessional and are unable to control your customers, word will get out, and your venue will become an easy target for persons wishing to commit serious crime in your club. If an emergency ensures they will need to take appropriate action and if necessary dial 999.

108. Management must take a photocopy of all door staff SIA badges.

109. Door supervisors must place their details in a register at the start of work. This includes their name, badge number, time they start and finish work and if they are working for an agency, the agency details.

110. This information must be locked away in a safe for safe keeping.

Smoking Areas

111. Anyone wishing to leave the premises to have a smoke should be confined to a separate holding area. This area must be monitored by security and CCTV. If the holding area is in the public domain, they will need to be searched again before being allowed back into the premises.

112. Customers should be allowed a maximum of ten minutes to smoke their cigarette.

113. No more than 10 customers should be allowed to smoke outside the venue at any one time.

114. Ensure smoking areas are protected from the public to prevent illegal substances or weapons being passed to customers.

Staff

Uniform

115. In order to easily identify staff from customers, staff must wear a basic uniform. This could be a plain coloured T-shirt with the name of the venue and the word STAFF written on the back in yellow or gold. On the front of the T- shirt it should display the venues logo or name and staff should also wear a badge stating their first name. This can be beneficial for the company as a marketing tool and it is also an effective way to increase security as customers will know who to talk to if they are concerned about anything. If an incident were to occur, police would easily be able to identify staff from the customers.

Briefing

107. Your security is the first members of staff that your patrons see. Their manner and professionalism relates the attitude of the club. Their function is to screen your customers before allowing them to enter. If they are seen as unprofessional and are unable to control your customers, word will get out, and your venue will become an easy target for persons wishing to commit serious crime in your club. If an emergency ensures they will need to take appropriate action and if necessary dial 999.

108. Management must take a photocopy of all door staff SIA badges.

109. Door supervisors must place their details in a register at the start of work. This includes their name, badge number, time they start and finish work and if they are working for an agency, the agency details.

110. This information must be locked away in a safe for safe keeping.

Smoking Areas

111. Anyone wishing to leave the premises to have a smoke should be confined to a separate holding area. This area must be monitored by security and CCTV. If the holding area is in the public domain, they will need to be searched again before being allowed back into the premises.

112. Customers should be allowed a maximum of ten minutes to smoke their cigarette.

113. No more than 10 customers should be allowed to smoke outside the venue at any one time.

114. Ensure smoking areas are protected from the public to prevent illegal substances or weapons being passed to customers.

Staff

Uniform

115. In order to easily identify staff from customers, staff must wear a basic uniform. This could be a plain coloured T-shirt with the name of the venue and the word STAFF written on the back in yellow or gold. On the front of the T- shirt it should display the venues logo or name and staff should also wear a badge stating their first name. This can be beneficial for the company as a marketing tool and it is also an effective way to increase security as customers will know who to talk to if they are concerned about anything. If an incident were to occur, police would easily be able to identify staff from the customers.

Briefing

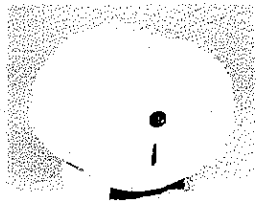

116. There should be a staff briefing before the venue opens so that everyone knows their roles and responsibilities.

117. Staff should liaise with the local police licensing officer to obtain current crime trends and, where appropriate, inform police of any concerns that they may have.

118. The local police licensing officer should provide staff with Trident posters and information to keep them up-to-date.

Toilets

119. Ensure that the person responsible for the checks is wearing a safety hat, glasses and protective gloves in case Remove toilet lids to prevent customers standing on them to get to the loose ceiling tiles and also to prevent them being used to take drugs.

120. Avoid flat surfaced toilet roll dispensers (see picture on the right) as the space inside the dispenser can provide a place to take drugs or hide weapons. If a venue has this type of dispenser, ask them to change it to a circular one. This is far more difficult to hide anything in and the shape of the dispenser will help to reduce the risk of drugs being taken on it (see picture 3). In order to prevent customers hiding drugs or weapons in the toilet cistern, secure the lid with a cable tie. If this is cut or removed, staff will know that the cistern has been tampered with. If this does occur the cistern will have to be fitted behind a secure panel.

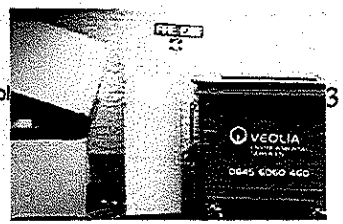

121. In order to prevent drug abuse in toilets, remove all flat surfaces and replace with either angled surfaces or fit small mosaic tiles.

122. CCTV must monitor the entrances and lobby areas of the male and female toilets.

Transportation

123. There should be a free, direct telephone line for your customers to use to order a mini cab for a safe journey home. This will reduce the risk of illegal mini cabs picking up customers, subjecting them to the possible risk of serious crime.

Waste Disposal

Jo Pool 3

124. Ensure that empty bottles, building waste and general rubbish is cleared away and placed in a secure lockable commercial waste bin to prevent these items from being used as a weapon.

125. Unlocked waste bins provide the perfect place to hide weapons or drugs, so it is important that managers ensure that this is implemented. Make sure that you remove the refrigerator, and discarded furniture.

Zero tolerance policy

126. Unlocked waste bins provide the perfect place to hide weapons or drugs, so it is important that managers ensure these bins are kept locked at all times.

127. A zero tolerance policy to the use and carrying of drugs and weapons in the premises must be made clear. Fit a poster at the entrance door with "no search no entry" message. Place posters throughout the premises (including the toilets) to remind customers AND STAFF of this zero tolerance policy.

128. Make sure that this is implemented; call police if you think that a customer is suspected of being in possession of drugs or a weapon, this could safe lives. All staff must be made aware of this requirement and understand where they can go make this phone call. Any weapons or drugs found should be seized except a gun. Staff should not handle a gun as it could go off at any time. Any drugs or weapons found should be recorded in an incident book.

NOTICE OF DECISION

LICENSING SUB-COMMITTEE – 10 APRIL 2014

Licensing Act 2003: Expedited Review - Club Favour, (Ground Floor) 512 -516 Old Kent Road, London SE1 5BA

1. Decision

Having considered whether it is appropriate to take interim steps pending the determination of an application made under Section 53A of the Licensing Act 2003 by the chief of police for the Metropolitan Police area for a summary review of the premises licence in respect of the premises known Club Favour, (Ground Floor) 512 - 516 Old Kent Road, London SE1 5BA the licensing sub-committee have made the following decision:

That the following conditions be placed on the premises licence as interim steps to promote the licensing objectives pending the determination of the review application at the full hearing:

1. That the smoking area must be monitored by two security staff at all times that licensable activities are taking place and there be no more than ten customers allowed to smoke in this area at any one time.

2. That door security measures be monitored and maintained on a daily basis prior to opening in order to ensure no unauthorised entry.

2. Reasons

This was a hearing to consider if it was appropriate to take interim steps to promote the licensing objectives upon receipt of an application by the Metropolitan Police for an expedited summary review of the premises.

The sub-committee have considered the application made by the Metropolitan Police and supplementary evidence from the police presented at this hearing. The police advised that on Saturday 5 April 2014, at approximately 2.30am, a male was seriously assaulted amounting to grievous bodily harm. The officer advised that an altercation took place in the smoking area of the premises between two males. The victim of the incident was a bystander who at first believed he had been elbowed in the rib area. However, upon noticing blood on his t-shirt the victim established that he had been stabbed by a knife, which he then noticed on the floor. The police advised that the victim had left the premises after cleaning his wound and made his way home to Croydon, before being taken to Croydon University Hospital by his mother. The police were called by the hospital stating that a male had arrived with a stab injury. The victim was initially cooperative with the police. However, after the intervention of his mother he refused to give a statement or hand over his clothing for forensic evidence as well as refusing the police access to his medical report. The police have no record of being called to investigate the incident until the hospital contacted them at approximately 6am.

The police advised that they had attended the premises to forensically examine the scene at approximately 12 noon but the premises had already been cleaned. The police spoke to a male working behind the bar and who allegedly stated that he was made aware of a stabbing at around 5am. However, the club was busy and he did not see anything and did not see any blood. The police also highlighted some previous incidents relating to the premises over the past six months.

The sub-committee have also considered evidence submitted by the premises licence holders in relation to the application who advised that they were surprised to be subject to an expedited review. They stated that they had always been cooperative with the police and responsive to any recommendations. It was further submitted that they were pro-active and on occasions where there was intelligence that safety could be compromised they would cooperate with the police and/or contact the police as soon as possible. They advised that safety was a primary concern, particularly as this was a family run business, employing several members of their family.

They advised that they had not been aware of the events on 5 April 2014, alleged by the police, until after 12 noon. They advised that they viewed the CCTV, which showed unauthorised entrance of seven individuals who may or may not have been involved with the altercation. They further advised that the CCTV showed an altercation between two males, which was separated by a member of security who led the males outside the premises. The bar man who spoke to the police when the police attended the premises, clarified his conversation with the police. He advised the sub-committee that he had not told the police that he was aware of a stabbing but had told the police that he had become aware at approximately 5am that morning, through a conversation with other staff, that an altercation had taken place. He had advised the police that they could view the CCTV from 1.30pm that day. To date the police have not attended to view the CCTV footage.

The premises confirmed that upon discovering the unauthorised access they had immediately responded by installing a system whereby bright lights switch on and the music is cut off when this door is opened.

On considering the evidence before the sub-committee, the sub-committee believe that the additional conditions listed above are appropriate and proportionate to satisfy the licensing objectives until the full review hearing takes place on 2 May 2014.

3. Appeal rights

There is no right of appeal to a magistrates' court against the licensing authority's decision at this Stage.
