875	The Sapphire Community Group	The Sapphire Employability Academy	The Sapphire Foundation has worked with more than 4000 young people 16-30 over the past four years. Our aims are to provide young people with opportunities for self-development and to explore their talents to inspire them to build successful careers and hopeful futures. In a deeply worrying statistic, the number of 18-24-year-olds claiming unemployment-related benefits increased by nearly 125 per cent between March and September 2020. Covid-19 has severely affected the job market and the traditional career trajectory, leaving many young people, who otherwise would have sought regular 9-5 jobs, to forcibly consider other, more precarious employment such as gig jobs. According to a survey carried out by Hope Not Hate, among 16-24-year-olds, more than half within the age group felt that "the pandemic has stolen their future". And who can blame them when they are surrounded by news of redundancies reaching record highs and employers being less likely to take on full-time or even part-time employees due to financial uncertainty? Tony Wilson, Director of the Institute for Employment Studies said: "These figures should be a wake-up call for all of us". The Sapphire Employability Academy (SEA) programme is designed to help young people gain access to work, accredited training and gain leadership development. SEA was established to develop active citizenship skills among young people aged 15-30 years from disadvantaged backgrounds for residents in Southwark. Unemployment rates are on the rise and us at Sapphire are trying to reduce the rates and give young people the independence and freedom to thrive.	£5,000

1115	Link Age Southwark	Gentle Exercise	We are seeking funds to support the relocation and continued delivery of our weekly gentle exercise group that we previously ran at St James Cloisters. It is delivered by a professional tutor who has experience in working with older people and those with mobility and health issues. This group has been running online since last year and will remain online until the end of the financial year. It is then our intention to relocate the group to an alternative venue. The room we used previously at St James Cloisters is small and lacks the necessary recommended ventilation. We have liaised with our landlords at the United Reform Church and are able to hire a large space from them at a reduced cost. Accessing this facility would also allow us to open the group up to more members. Alongside the benefits of the physical exercise that the group offers, members have also feedback how much they enjoy the social side of the group and the opportunity to see their peers and interact with the tutor on a regular basis.	£7,970

977	St John's Church East Dulwich	Increasing the offer of Goose Green Coffee Morning to include parallel exercise and gardening sessions	Goose Green Coffee Morning (GGCM) has continued to meet every Wednesday throughout the pandemic, using Zoom until June 2021. Our in-person gathering has quickly re-established its-self, with new members joining too. It is clear there is a need for a regular gathering within the community. Many attendees live alone, with some having long term health problems. The social contact provided by the group reduces loneliness and isolation, which may reduce health needs. To keep the group engaged and stimulated we plan to continue to provide activities at some GGCM sessions. These will include: simple craft or art activities, book or film discussions, guest speakers and live music. We will also build on the work of the "getting connected" project conducted in 20/21 by holding sessions on basic computer and tablet skills. To build Coffee Morning as a centre of the community, and to enhance the physical and mental health of the community, we plan to run new groups alongside GGCM. It is hoped these groups might appeal to those who would not otherwise come to coffee morning but also encourage more people to attend and make use of the opportunity to socialise at the coffee morning. The groups planned are an Exercise group and a Gardening group These groups will take place on Wednesday morning and be timed to coincide with Coffee Morning. Those attracted by these new groups will be encouraged to call in to GGCM, adding to a sense of community, forging new relationships between different people and fostering a community hub in Goose Green. The new activities will promote the physical and mental well-being of their attendees, and everyone coming to Goose Green Coffee Morning.	£5,067
