A licence may not be held by an individual or an individual in a partnership who is resident in the UK who:

- does not have the right to live and work in the UK; or
- is subject to a condition preventing him or her from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

Any premises licence issued in respect of an application made on or after 6 April 2017 will become invalid if the holder ceases to be entitled to work in the UK.

Applicants must demonstrate that they have an entitlement to work in the UK and are not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity. They do this in one of two ways: 1) by providing with this application copies or scanned copies of the documents listed below (which do not need to be certified), or 2) by providing their 'share code' to enable the licensing authority to carry out a check using the Home Office online right to work checking service (see below).

Documents which demonstrate entitlement to work in the UK

- An expired or current passport showing the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is a British citizen or a citizen of the UK and Colonies having the right of abode in the UK [please see note below about which sections of the passport to copy].

- A birth or adoption certificate issued in the UK, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A birth or adoption certificate issued in the Channel Islands, the Isle of Man or Ireland when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A certificate of registration or naturalisation as a British citizen, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A current passport endorsed to show that the holder is allowed to stay in the UK and is currently allowed to work and is not subject to a condition preventing the holder from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.
- A current Biometric Immigration Document (Biometric Residence Permit) issued by the Home Office to the holder which indicates that the named person can currently stay in the UK and is allowed to work relation to the carrying on of a licensable activity.
- A current Residence Card issued by the Home Office to a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights or residence.
- A current Immigration Status Document containing a photograph issued by the Home Office to the holder with an endorsement indicating that the named person may stay in the UK, and is allowed to work and is not subject to a condition preventing the holder from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A Certificate of Application, less than 6 months old, issued by the Home Office under regulation 18(3) or 20(2) of the Immigration (European Economic Area) Regulations 2016, to a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights of residence.

- Reasonable evidence that the person has an outstanding application to vary their permission to be in the UK with the Home Office such as the Home Office acknowledgement letter or proof of postage evidence, or reasonable evidence that the person has an appeal or administrative review pending on an immigration decision, such as an appeal or administrative review reference number.

- Reasonable evidence that a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights of residence in exercising treaty rights in the UK including:
 - o evidence of the applicant's own identity – such as a passport,

 - o evidence of their relationship with the European Economic Area family member – e.g. a marriage certificate, civil partnership certificate or birth certificate, and

 - o evidence that the European Economic Area national has a right of permanent residence in the UK or is one of the following if they have been in the UK for more than 3 months:

 - (iii) studying e.g. letter from the school, college or university and evidence of sufficient funds; or

 - (iv) self-sufficient e.g. bank statements.

Family members of European Economic Area nationals who are studying or financially independent must also provide evidence that the European Economic Area national and any family members hold comprehensive sickness insurance in the UK. This can include a private medical insurance policy, an EHIC card or an S1, S2 or S3 form.

Original documents must not be sent to licensing authorities. If the document copied is a passport, a copy of the following pages should be provided:

- (i) any page containing the holder's personal details including nationality;

- (ii) any page containing the holder's photograph;

- (iii) any page containing the holder's signature;

(iv) any page containing the date of expiry; and

(v) any page containing information indicating the holder has permission to enter or remain in the UK and is permitted to work.

If the document is not a passport, a copy of the whole document should be provided.

Your right to work will be checked as part of your licensing application and this could involve us checking your immigration status with the Home Office. We may otherwise share information with the Home Office. Your licence application will not be determined until you have complied with this guidance.

Home Office online right to work checking service

As an alternative to providing a copy of the documents listed above, applicants may demonstrate their right to work by allowing the licensing authority to carry out a check with the Home Office online right to work checking service.

To demonstrate their right to work via the Home Office online right to work checking service, applicants should include in this application their 9-digit share code (provided to them upon accessing the service at <https://www.gov.uk/prove-right-to-work>) which, along with the applicant's date of birth (provided within this application), will allow the licensing authority to carry out the check.

In order to establish the applicant's right to work, the check will need to indicate that the applicant is allowed to work in the United Kingdom and is not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

An online check will not be possible in all circumstances because not all applicants will have an immigration status that can be checked online. The Home Office online right to work checking service sets out what information and/or documentation applicants will need in order to access the service. Applicants who are unable to obtain a share code from the service should submit copy documents as set out above.

General description of premises (see guidance note 1)

	After being granted a premises licence for 75 Camberwell Church Street on 6 January 2022 for a wine bar, kitchen and retail shop similar to the applicant's site in Peckham at 125 Queens Road, London SE15 2ND (https://peckhamcellars.co.uk/) the applicant has now been offered a lease of the adjoining property, 73 Camberwell Church Street. The intention is for number 73 to be operated as a separate unit with its own lease but with a similar offer, albeit there will be no outside area for customers. Back of house will be shared by both units but they have separate entrances/exits. Similar conditions are proffered as were granted on number 75, albeit with an additional condition preventing any premises licence being transferred to a more mainstream operator. The Applicant is aware that there is a rebuttable presumption to refuse any new premises licence application and that it is necessary to demonstrate that a grant will not add to cumulative impact. However, the Applicant believes that several factors provided at paragraph 162 of Southwark Council's Statement of Licensing Policy apply, namely: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> i) The Premises is small (with a maximum capacity of 50 excluding staff) and ceases operation well before midnight. ii) A suite of conditions has been proffered which will ensure that the premises must operate in a specified manner including waiter/waitress service and limiting the number of covers (see above). Nevertheless, if the Licensing Authority, any other statutory body or local resident still have concerns the Applicant is happy to discuss them.

Expected Standards

There are 4 licensing objectives of equal importance:

- The prevention of crime and disorder
- Public safety
- The prevention of public nuisance
- The protection of children from harm

It is our legal obligation to ensure that we prevent crime and disorder and public nuisance on our premises and as people are leaving our premises. As a business we value our reputation, want to have good relationships with our neighbours, care for our clients, want to work in partnership with the statutory authorities and are committed to trading within the law while maintaining the highest possible ethical standards in all our business activities.

We expect all of our team to work with us to commit to running a venue that is orderly, peaceful and free from crime, disorder and nuisance. This policy is intended to guide you through the process. This policy should be implemented in conjunction with all other policies.

Staff procedure and responsibilities;

The following steps should be taken to disperse customers:

- Last orders will be served by 22.30 Monday to Saturday and 19:30 on Sundays. At this point a staff member should visit each group or individual in the premises advising them in a friendly manner that the premises are closing, thank them for their custom and advise them that they have 30 minutes to finish their drinks and leave the building.
- Lighting levels will be increased
- Windows and entrance doors should be closed to ensure neighbours are not disturbed.
- Mangers should ask customers who are leaving to leave:
 - Quietly
 - With no open drinks
 - And to move away from the premises as quickly and orderly as possible
- A limited period of 'drinking-up' time will assist with the gradual dispersal of all customers at the end of the evening. Our internal policy is 30 minutes after last orders.
- Appropriate signage is placed at all exit doors asking customers to respect our neighbours/leave quietly if this is damaged or missing this must be reported to a supervisor or manager.
- There should be visible management and staff presence in the customer areas during closing time to ensure all customers leave quietly, orderly and quickly.
