I wish to raise an objection on the following grounds.

As a resident, there is already disruption and excessive noise from rowdy patrons of this establishment into the early hours of the morning.

Residents in this area are already beset with the nuisance of broken bottles and vomit. The lane-ways smell like public toilets due to the number of men urinating against the walls if they can't be bothered going into the pub/club. This will only get worse if the licence hours are extended.

Bicycles and pedestrians already have to ride and step around broken bottles and glasses, especially on Saturday and Sunday mornings. This will only get worse, the more intoxicated patrons become if licence hours are extended.

The later it is at night when clubs close, the drunker patrons become, and the more the noise from drinkers disturbs the peace in Borough High Street. People who are drunk are not in control of what they are doing and do not realise how noisy they are being. At present, patrons regularly spill out into the middle of the street, shouting and singing at the tops of their voices, causing a public nuisance when people are trying to sleep. Southwark noise pollution officers have been called to break up the disturbance.

I am prepared to attend in person to make my objections.
