30th July 2009

Dear Sir/Madam

RE: THE LICENSING ACT 2003 – WARNING LETTER
(BLUE EYED MAID, 173 Borough High Street, London, SE1 1HR)

On 24th July 2009 at 23.10 Licensing Enforcement Officers carried out an inspection to determine whether the licensable activities at the above premises were carried out in accordance with your authorisation.

In addition to the above, the Officers also considered 'risk assessment' criteria that would help determine the frequency of future inspections to your premises.

During the inspection the officers witnessed the following:

- The Premises Licence Summary (or certified copy) was not on display and the Premises Licence (or certified copy) was not kept at the premises. This is in breach of Sections 57(2) & (3) of the Licensing Act 2003. If you need a replacement, please send a cheque to Southwark Council for £10.50.

Each of the matters listed above potentially constitutes a breach of the licence issued by the Council under the Licensing Act 2003.

You must ensure that licensable activities and hours of operation are in accordance with those listed on your premises licence. You must also ensure that the conditions attached to your licence are adhered to. A further visit will be made to check on these matters.

If compliance is not achieved the Council may take formal action that may affect your license or lead to a prosecution. A person found guilty of an offence under the above section is liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or to a fine not exceeding £20,000.

I hope this warning will ensure that compliance is achieved and no further action will be required.
