DETAILS OF THE REPORT

Title and brief description of the nature of the business to be considered:

Ledbury Estate Phase A – Appropriation for Planning Purposes

To appropriate the land and buildings making up Phase A of the Ledbury Estate regeneration.

What is the potential cost to the council if the decision is delayed?

Construction commenced in January and appropriation needs to take place as soon as possible to reduce any risks of delays by way of injunction.

How long has the department known the decision required a closed report?

The item was not included on the published forward plan in January 2024 due to an administrative oversight. A general exception was issued on 3 January 2024.
