

Item No. 8.	Classification: Open	Date: 8 March 2016	Meeting Name: Standards Committee
Report title:		Report on the operational use of the Regulation of Investigatory Powers Act 2000
Ward(s) or groups affected:		All
From:		Director of Law and Democracy

RECOMMENDATION

1. That the committee note the information relating to the use of Regulation of Investigatory Powers Act (RIPA) for the period shown.

BACKGROUND INFORMATION

2. The Regulation of Investigatory Powers Act 2000 (RIPA) puts a regulatory framework around a range of investigatory powers used by local authorities. This is done to ensure the powers are used lawfully and in a way that is compatible with the European Convention on Human Rights. It also requires, in particular, those authorising the use of covert techniques to give proper consideration to whether their use is necessary and proportionate.
3. RIPA legislates for the use by local authorities of covert methods of surveillance and information gathering to assist in the detection and prevention of crime in relation to an authorities core functions.
4. At their meeting on 13 October 2010 the former committee agreed to consider reports on the use of RIPA.

KEY ISSUES FOR CONSIDERATION

5. The council's use of these powers is subject to regular inspection and audit by the Office of the Surveillance Commissioner (OSC) in respect of covert surveillance authorisations under RIPA. During these inspections, authorisations and procedures are closely scrutinised and Authorising Officers are interviewed by the inspectors.
6. From 1 November 2012 local authorities were required to obtain judicial approval prior to using covert techniques. Local authority authorisations and notices under RIPA (Regulation of Investigatory Powers Act 2000) will only be given effect once an order has been granted by a Justice of the Peace.
7. Additionally, from that date local authority use of directed surveillance under RIPA will be limited to the investigation of crimes which attract a six month or more custodial sentence, with the exception of offences relating to the underage sale of alcohol and tobacco.

8. Appendix A shows the usage for the period 1 October 2015 to 31 December 2015. Appendix B shows the usage for the period 1 April 2010 to 30 September 2015 for comparison purposes.
