

Dear Sir/Madam

I'm writing this letter in regards to my dad's license for his shop (D'connect Restaurant, 11 John Ruskin Street, London, SE5 0NS).

If my dad were to lose his license I don't know how we would cope, considering it is one of the main sources of income within my family. Furthermore at a crucial time such as this where my brother and I are going to university it's vital that he keeps his license.

In addition, the complaints made seem to me to be a huge exaggeration and largely false.

Thank you for taking the time to consider my letter.

Kind Regards
