

Proposed Constitutional Amendments

Changes to the constitution are shown as follows:

- Additions (shown as underlined)
- Deletions (shown with a ~~strikethrough~~)

No.	Section	Issue / Reason for change	Current Wording	Proposed Amendment	Proposed by
1.	Part 4: Overview and Scrutiny Procedure Rules	Clarify the deadline for members to request a review, where the scrutiny officer has deemed the request invalid. This will be in line with the deadline for the scrutiny officer notifying members that he/she is of the opinion that a request for a call-in may not be valid.	19. Procedure following call-in Invalid call-in request – next steps 19.1 If the scrutiny officer is of the opinion that a request for a call-in may not be valid, because of a breach of procedure or other reason under this constitution, they shall inform the relevant members (this must always include the chair and vice chair) within one clear working day of receipt of the request. In the event of dispute, the decision of the monitoring officer shall be final.	19. Procedure following call-in Invalid call-in request – next steps 19.1 a) If the scrutiny officer is of the opinion that a request for a call-in may not be valid, because of a breach of procedure or other reason under this constitution, they shall inform the relevant members (this must always include the chair and vice chair) within one clear working day of receipt of the request. In the event of dispute, the decision of the monitoring officer shall be final by 4pm on the second working day after the day that the request is received. In the event of dispute, the decision of the monitoring officer shall be final. b) Where a call-in has been ruled invalid by the scrutiny officer, a request by the relevant members for the monitoring officer to review shall be made by 4pm on the second working day after the day of the notification of the decision by the scrutiny officer.	Proper Constitutional Officer / Deputy Monitoring Officer / Head of Scrutiny