Volunteers	Why do you want to be involved?	Qualifications
Matthew Allgood	I am proud to work in the best borough in London. Southwark's rich civic culture and heritage owes a huge amount to the commitment, creativity, passion and energy of its residents, and it is right and proper that we celebrate and recognise their achievements. My professional experience and knowledge as a grant giver to hundreds of community organisations and groups - many of whom are powered by inspiring local residents and volunteers - in Southwark makes me a good candidate for the judging panel.	I have worked in Southwark's community since 2012. I have 9 years' experience of grant management and administration at United St Saviour's Charity to groups and organisations that build community in Southwark and have strong working relationships with the dynamic individuals that drive them. I am a Committee member of Southwark Civic Society, formed to promote civic pride, community engagement and volunteering in Southwark; and trustee of food growing and arts charity Edible Rotherhithe. I have a postgraduate diploma in Grantmaking Management from The Business School, City University; and postgraduate certificate in Charity Management from South Bank Business School.
Nicholas Okwulu	A former recipient of the Civic award recipient 2016. Founder of Pempeople and Livesey Exchange community organisation that works with the community and has the trust of the community.	Creator of Southwark Untold at Tate Exchange providing opportunities to local residents on a global platform. Founding member of the Sunbeam forum. One the Founding member of the new South Southwark design district (London design festival 2021).

	An individual that has been rooted in the community for over 15 years Trusted by the community above many others.
Sarah Gibb	I live and work in the Borough. A proud Southwark resident for the past 17 years, I previously worked for a Southwark-based social enterprise which supported residents into work and I now lead local charity, Time & Talents. I was previously a T&T trustee and also a Southwark Mediation Centre board member. I trained to be a community mediator with SMC and have volunteered across the Borough in that volunteer role. I'm currently a Community Southwark trustee. These various roles and experiences across the community, local governments and business sectors have provided me with a strong understanding of Southwark and its stakeholders. I would bring that background knowledge, passion for the Borough and representation from the local voluntary and community sector.	I lead Time & Talents, a local charity in Rotherhithe, which has the purpose of building stronger communities, reducing loneliness and isolation and increasing health and wellbeing. We reach around 4,000 local residents a year, delivering targeted services and activities for older people and for families, along with activities and events for all ages that bring the whole community together for fun and friendship. I'm a collaborative and pragmatic leader, recognised for working with integrity and being values-driven. Wide-ranging engagement, relationship building, partnership, campaigning and marketing experience across charitable, non-profit and commercial organisations. A strong advocate, promoting social change and stronger communities. Skilled in influencing, networking and developing powerful relationships with senior stakeholders in business, central/local government and NGOs.
Pauline Nandoo	I would like to help identify and recognise outstanding service by those who are making a real difference in Southwark as so much valuable work is being done here. This provides inspiration to everyone - celebrating achievements and successes. I possess a strong track record of voluntary sector working and would provide dedication from my side and given the opportunity, I am	Currently the Director of Southwark Day Centre for Asylum Seekers. My experience supporting asylum seeking communities spans over 35yrs – including social action work within the community to address inequality issues. Employment <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • SDCAS 1999 – present - Director; St Mungos 1996 -1999 Key Worker/Asylum Seekers

	sure I will be able to help all that I can for the judging panel.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Refugee Council - Centre Worker 1994-96; Albany Centre – Community Education Development Worker 1985 -1994 Skills <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Fundraising and Budgeting; Team Working; Partnership and Networking; Strategic Planning Education and Training <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • OISC Level 2 Asylum & Immigration; BSc Hons Psychology; Suicide Prevention Training/er • Certificate in Adult Learning and Development Awards: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • MBE 2012 Honours List for her work in Southwark.
Deborah Hayman	Having worked at Community Southwark for 10 years, active citizenship and the community of Southwark are very close to my heart. As part of the CVS for Southwark I have connected with many local networks, supported individuals and organisations across the borough to achieve their goals. We run an awards ceremony called 'Southwark Stars' that also celebrates the contribution that volunteers and active citizens make to Southwark which is one of the best parts of working at Community Southwark - being able to celebrate the sector and the individuals involved and take some time to reflect. It is such an important thing to do and I believe the Civic Awards provide an amazing opportunity to recognise the work done in communities by the people of Southwark. It would be a fantastic opportunity to bring the knowledge of Community Southwark to this	With over 16 years' experience in the non-profit and public sectors, I have spent 10 years at Community Southwark in a range of roles culminating in an Interim CEO position from May 2019. During this time I have worked with individuals and organisation to improve capacity and capabilities within the communities of Southwark. I have a proven track record of building and implementing organisational plans and have good strategic vision. I am driven, reliable and collaborative, I have good interpersonal skills to engage, motivate and encourage others. I am a supporter of volunteering and active citizenship, have a Master's in Education, Health Promotion and International Development and a keen interest in health, heritage, culture and the arts.

	panel as well as a chance to get to know people who may not have accessed our support. For me personally, I think it would be a fantastic opportunity to learn and to see another panel in action as well as a chance to support the panel with my knowledge of the sector.
Katy Woolley	Having worked at Community Southwark for 2 and a half years, the community of Southwark is very important to me. As Head of Volunteering and Social action I work and support local communities, residents, individuals and organisations across the borough. An integral part of my role is recognising and rewarding the incredible work formal and informal volunteers do across the borough. I understand how important these recognition events are and the impact they have on the individuals and communities. I organise and run our annual celebratory event Southwark Stars and also Volunteers week, which is the highlight of our calendars. The Civic Awards like Southwark stars is an incredibly important event to showcase, celebrate and thank the wonderful people of Southwark and it would be incredible to be part of this event. It would be incredibly heart-warming and a wonderful opportunity personally, additionally it would be a fantastic opportunity to represent Community Southwark on the panel.	I have over 12 years' experience in the charity sector both here in the UK and overseas. All of my roles have been in Volunteer Management, supporting communities and individuals to thrive. I have worked in many countries across Africa and the pacific and in my last role with a cardiac charity I travelled the world supporting hospitals and health clinics. I have always volunteered myself and understand and appreciate how important it is to celebrate and recognise people's efforts and dedication. I have my level 2 in counselling, health promotion and sexual health training as well as a qualified English language teacher.
